From the Vicarage

There must something about coffee. My father lived alone in later life. When I rang to ask how he was, he nearly always told me that he had taken the bus into town, been shopping, and had coffee. He never missed having coffee.

He had become quite deaf, and would avoid family and other social gatherings rather than face the embarrassment of not being able to follow conversation. But I've never forgotten going with him to the café where he used to have coffee – and for the first time in years seeing him smiling and chatting with people who had become his friends, and who naturally raised their voices to include him in their conversation without giving it a second thought.

In the parish where I was a curate, a young man started coming to church whose life had been difficult. One morning after the service he asked if we could meet for coffee and a chat. Sadly, it never happened. Tragically and unexpectedly, he died a couple of weeks later. I remarked to someone that the promised coffee and chat would have to wait for heaven. "Don't worry," he replied, "he'll have a coffee waiting for you when you get there."

I was reminded of all this by the twice-monthly Friday coffee mornings that we have started holding at St Radigund's in Capel, and the joy of seeing people coming together, chatting, smiling and making friends. Yes, there is definitely something about coffee.

I don't know whether they have coffee in heaven or not - but since Jesus once described the Kingdom of Heaven as being like someone giving a banquet, I wouldn't be at all surprised. There must be something there that goes with coming together, chatting, smiling and making friends... Brian

Capel Church Hall Fund - Programme for 2017

There is nothing planned for Friday 8th of September, which is the usual day for our events being the second Friday of the month, but on Saturday 9th of September there will be a concert by The Agape Choir in St Radigund's Church, Albany Road, Capel starting at 7pm. Admission free. All are most welcome to attend.

Our next event in the 2nd Friday of the month programme will be on Friday 13th of October when we will have a talk about the National Coastguard Watch. Admission will be free but there will be a retiring collection in favour of the NCW. You will no doubt be aware that there is a National Coastguard Watch station on East Cliff Folkestone which looks out at the busiest shipping lane in the World and I have no doubt that we will hear some very interesting stories of their sightings. Please support this evening if you possible can.

The demand for storage space the hall has been steadily increasing. As part of the drive to provide more storage space the use of the chairs hired out from the hall has been reviewed. In view of the low demand for them it has been decided to dispose of them (passing them on to Operation Sunshine for use in an African School). The committee apologies for any inconvenience this may cause but believe it is more important to provide storage space for those who hire the hall. It will still be possible to hire tables at £2.50 each.

It seems to have been a very busy year for the hall and it's hard to believe it is September already. The Garage Safari, so well supported by so many in the village, is only possible because of the number of volunteers who help, usually behind the scenes. Thank you one and all, especially the new kitchen team. Fingers crossed they will be happy to help again next year. The village hall committee would also like to thank the Parish Council for allowing the use of Jubilee Field as a car park. It is well publicised as the place to park.

The new front of the building should be finished by now (the editor's tight deadline means that while writing this the builders are still hard at work). Although the builders were recommended by the architects, the work was put out to competitive tender. Of the three companies who responded, Complete Builders, submitted the preferred bid. Their catch phrase of 'we only have solutions' has proven to be true; as with all projects there have been one or two hiccups which were resolved without stress. Despite the weather the project has run to time, partly thanks to their willingness to work late –the brickies worked until nearly 8.00pm one Friday night!

A huge thank you to everyone for their patience during the work and we hope you agree it makes access to the hall for those with mobility difficulties much easier as well as fitting in well with the rest of the hall. Part of the brief to the architect was to make the hall look more welcoming, which we hope you agree is achieved to some extent. The permanent flooring will be laid later this year once the screed has had time to thoroughly dry out.

The hall is slowly being tidied and the intention is to move the books and coat rails into the lobby, giving more space and a cleaner look in the hall. There is also an increasing demand for storage and various options, including some in use at other halls, are being explored. Now the building work is completed we are ready to accept more books, paperbacks for preference. The Pilgrim's Hospice bookshop is happy to accept text books and hardback.

September is the end of the financial year for the hall. Early October the books will be sent to the auditor for scrutiny and returned to us just in time for the Annual Meeting at the end of November. The date and time will be published nearer the time and Trustees will be available to answer your questions – please don't make them too hard. It's also time to elect the new Trustees; anyone living in the 'area of benefit' is eligible to stand. If you are (or know someone who might be) interested, please talk to one of the current Trustees – their details are in the back of Grapevine (page 15). There's an immense satisfaction putting something back into our community and all sorts of talents, skills and experience are needed. Commitment can be as little as a few hours once a month upwards. Alternatively, there is always a need for volunteers to help on an ad hoc basis. It's a great way to get to know people in the village, especially if you have recently moved into Capel-le-Ferne.

Clubs and organisations are back from their summer break and by now should have made arrangements to collect the new keys from the Village Hall during the Garage Safari on 3rd September. If the current key holder is holding their own sale that day, could they please arrange an alternative member to bring ALL hall keys to exchange. The lock to the small hall is also being changed so the only keys anyone will need to retain are those to storage cupboards/lockers.

CAPEL-LE-FERNE FARMERS MARKET

Now in our 13th Year

Every Tuesday 10 a.m. to 12.30 p.m.

Since Post Office Limited closed the village post office in 2007 Rachel Chandler has helped run a postal service for local residents, providing stamps and accepting parcels at the weekly Farmers' Market. This has proved very popular with residents and over the years Rachel has got to know many of them well. We need to congratulate Rachel on being appointed as a management accountant to a firm in Ashford. She will be greatly missed by the stall holders and customers at the weekly Market. It does offer an opportunity for someone who would like to be involved in the market and to give a bit to the community. We would appreciate one or two (dare we ask for three?) volunteers to help keep this service running? For more information contact Cherry on 255114 or Sally on 07730475838.

The Farmers' Market continued throughout the summer, despite the building works. The temporary entrance at the side encouraged many people to spend a bit of time (and money) at the craft market that runs alongside the Farmers' Market. It's there every week and the range of items varies. Regular visitors may have noticed a few of the changes which have taken place over the summer. Barbara has decided to retire and intends to honour the orders she has taken for Christmas cakes. Please talk to Debbie the meat who will take messages, letting Barbara know if anyone wants to cancel their order. Once we know who has ordered we will make special arrangements for the cakes to be delivered to the market ready for collection.

Sarah, from the Flour Jar, now alternates with Sprinkles, offering arrange of sweet treats and chutneys. The Flour Jar is a micro bakery based in Hawkinge. In addition to the cakes and delicacies Sarah brings to the market she is happy to take orders. You may like to add a tasty preserve to your order, including marmalades, jams, jellies, relishes and chutneys. Varieties depend on the season and what is available as the ingredients are locally sourced where possible, some are even home grown. If you have any specific requirements or allergies please ensure you let her know. Nuts are used in certain products but can be omitted if necessary. Items need to be collected or, depending on the size of the order, can be delivered within a 5 mile radius of Hawkinge. Do you live further away? Get in touch as she can deliver with a per mileage delivery charge. Jams and chutneys can be packaged in gift boxes or packed with scones for an afternoon treat. The entrance to the side door has been lined by Kevin with his soft fruits, apples and pears and, on alternate weeks the nursery and wood man, both with a wonderful range of items. Low Wood Nursery is manned by Andrew and Mary (they say they and their brothers and sisters all have religious names). Their plants are beautiful and Andrew and Mary are so knowledgeable about each in terms of best locations, soils and how high/wide they will grow. If they haven't brought what you are looking for talk to them and they will endeavour to bring it to their next visit. Inside the hall, Mick has his plants ready for sale at his usual prices –and they grow so well in local gardens. As the summer draws to a close his stock is dwindling so grab a bargain before they're gone. The woodman alternates with Low Wood nursery. The range of wooden items has been selected to be practical and reasonably priced. I love the twirling spirals for the garden and the crumb catching bread board is great for keeping the kitchen tidy. Once you've used one you'll never go back to an ordinary bread board again.

Sue and Doug took a short break during the summer – they are dependent on how many fish are locally available for catching. We will bring you news of their return as soon as we hear local stocks have increased enough for local fishing to recommence.

Our 'faithful' stall holders continue to bring their goodies every week. Meat and dairy, bread and pies, smoked salmon and taramasalata, fruit and vegetables, eggs. Most of the produce is grown in Kent with care. I recently visited a farm where the chickens, destined for a national chain, had been rescued from a barn. To my horror they had no feathers. The meat on sale at the farmers' market has a much more ethical background and hormones are not used routinely to 'beef it up' if you'll forgive the pun!

Whatever is sold at the market you can challenge any of our stall holders about the welfare of their animals, what chemicals are used (organic principles are followed) and what preserves are used. There is a saying 'you are what you eat'; the market offers an opportunity to eat food produced with care and ethics. We look forward to seeing you every Tuesday.

Order by noon on Sunday for collection or delivery on Tuesday.

Go to <http://farmersmarketsonline.co.uk> and choose from our pre-selected veg and recipe boxes or pick from the usual producers. Not going to be in? We can leave the food in cool containers to keep your food fresh. Once you have chosen your deliver/pick up options click the buttons below to shop. Why not try our boxes, they make shopping easier and are extremely good value.

At the beginning of 2017 the Trust became a charitable incorporated organisation, a move designed to ensure it can continue to operate effectively. While its new legal status makes no difference to the Trust's day-to-day operations, the new structure means it can continue to carry on its important work with the right safeguards in place.

The logo has been amended to reflect the new set up and highlight the fact that the Trust now incorporates the Battle of Britain Fighter Association, the exclusive body which only 'the Few' are entitled to join.

COULD YOU SAVE MONEY ON YOUR ENERGY BILLS
ENERGY DEAL SCHEME OPENS ON 8 AUGUST

Why not find out if you could get a better deal on your energy - the latest round of Dover District Council's collective energy switching scheme, Energy Deal, opens on Tuesday, 8 August.

Energy Deal is a free to join scheme, which gives residents the chance to make savings on their energy bills by registering to take part. A one day reverse auction will then be held on 10 October, where suppliers compete with their best offers. The winning suppliers send registrants their personalised offer for consideration. There is no obligation to switch. Sign up and see if you can save. In 2016, the total sum of savings for Dover District residents was £47,351.32. Figures after the recent May auction showed Dual Fuel customers who registered/ switched could save an average of over £150 on their annual energy bills. A recent survey, undertaken by the Department for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy shows that 48% of respondents have never switched, and only 17% had switched in the last year. Customers on a fixed tariff are urged to check their fixed tariff end date, as once this ends they will be moved to a standard tariff. If your fixed deal is coming to an end shortly, you will usually be able to switch without penalty during the last 42-49 days of a fixed tariff, check with your supplier as this varies.

To register or find out more, see the DDC website at www.dover.gov.uk/energy or see www.energydealswitch.com. Dover District residents without internet access can contact 01304 872428 to register. You will need to have your latest energy bill to hand, as you'll need the details during the registration process. To take part in this round of Energy Deal, please register by Monday 9 October 2017.

CAPEL-LE-FERNE EVENING WI

Hello everyone and hoped that some of you managed to get away for a few days. We have had some very hot days intermittently with some very heavy downpours. At least it remained warm. August Meeting is always our Garden Meeting and this year we were going to have it by kind courtesy of Mrs & Mrs Pilcher but due to those intermittent downpours we had to abandon that and have in by kind courtesy of the Baptist Church. But it is Murphy's Law it rained all morning and at 2.30p.m. as everyone arrived the blazing sun came out. Still as we had a jolly time and thank you to Pam Barr for providing 'Plan B'. There was approx. 24 members and one visitor who by the end of the meeting had joined. So very warm welcome to you Debbie.

This month's report is only a short one. We do not have a speaker this month as it always a very informal get together so that everyone could catch up on missed news and gossip. It was a very lively afternoon as everybody caught up with each other.

September's Meeting is our Birthday Meeting and is on Tuesday 12th September 2017. We are 58 years young. Andy Dinsdale is our Speaker and his talk is on 'The History of Juggling'. Visitors are welcome so come along and enjoy an evening of jollification. Competition is 'Cake decorated with a Circus Theme'.

Capel Evening WI - MEETING PROGRAMME = visitors welcome to all

September 12th Mr Andy Dinsdale – 'History of Juggling'.

Competition: 'Cake decorated in a Circus Theme' - Capel Village Hall 7.30 pm.

October 10th Mr Martin Newcombe – 'Mushrooms & Toadstools'.

Competition: Small Wildlife Model' - . Capel Village Hall '7.30 p.m.

November 8th Annual General Meeting Helen Stephenson Quiz

Competition: The Letter 'Y'. Capel Village Hall '7.30 p.m.

December 13th visitors welcome. Christmas Meeting.

A social evening, booking highly recommended, Capel Village Hall - 7.30 p.m.

If you think you might like to come along as a visitor and give Capel WI a try to see if it is your type of evening then please give Caroline a ring - 01303 847856. Visitors are always given a warm welcome.

Our next Bingo Evening it will be on Friday 22nd September 2017 in St Radigund's Church Hall, Albany Road, Capel. So make a note in your diaries.

Take care and talk to you all again next month.

P.S I do not normally put P.S but next month will be my last month at writing the 'WI Grapevine Report' so, if there are any willing members out there who would like to take it on, then please let me know because after next month there will be no WI Report. I have been doing it for 7 years and enjoyed every moment of it, but the time has now come to pass it on to someone else.
