From the Vicarage

Mother Teresa of Calcutta, Archbishop Desmond Tutu and Gandhi have all spoken of the power of small acts of kindness. A vicar friend used to say that on Judgement Day it will be something small, like a cup of tea offered to someone at a difficult moment, which will make all the difference to us. The Battle of Britain Memorial is just inside the parish of Capel le Ferne, and again this year I was privileged to assist in leading prayers at the annual Memorial Day – and this year marked the 75th anniversary of the beginning of the Battle. The service was about to begin as we took our seats. I was in the front row, near the microphone, and my wife Angela sat behind. Also in the front row was one of the veterans of the Battle who was to read the Exhortation. Just before we began someone asked Angela for a tissue. Prayers were offered and wreaths were laid. Sadly low cloud meant that the eagerly anticipated flypast had to be cancelled, and the afternoon ended after tea. That evening the telephone rang. Did we know that we were on the television news? Overcome by curiosity we turned on the TV. Of course, the news report concentrated on the remaining members of The Few who were present, but I caught a fleeting glimpse of myself in the background as a wreath was laid. Angela, too, was on screen for just a couple of seconds. But then the camera focussed on one of the wonderful old men who fought in the skies above us so long ago – and he was clutching a tissue... If there's a lesson in that, it's probably that Mother Teresa, Archbishop Desmond Tutu and Gandhi were right all along... Brian

Tickets at the door on the night will be £5 as usual which will include light refreshment

Strolling players on the Downs with Smuggling show

The beautiful, atmospheric ancient church of St Laurence in Hougham and will be visited by Sabotage Theatre Company on Saturday 8th August, to perform their new smuggling play Owlers by Zoe Hinks, as part of the Up on the Downs Big Summer Festival. Weaving local history and folklore, the story is inspired by a series of real events which led to the demise of the infamous Aldington Gang of smugglers, otherwise known as the Blues, when what started as a routine landing of contraband at Dover in 1826 ends in disaster. It follows the extraordinary lives of ordinary people when the world was turned upside down; Lighthouse Sisters, cross-dressing tub boys and the outlawed vicar who harboured contraband in his church. Owlers was piloted last year as part of JAM on the Marsh festival where it sold out. Hougham will be the company's final performance in an unusual tour across Sussex and Kent where historical buildings and forest clearings have been their theatres. "Creatively brilliant" Edward Armitage, Artistic Director of J.A.M. Sabotage Theatre brings original rural theatre to places of natural beauty and historical significance. The company has a very strong environmental ethos and the sets and costumes are made from recycled/reclaimed materials. 'Owlers', which is an old Kentish word for 'smugglers', was developed using folklore and true stories surrounding the arrest of the notorious gang leader, George Ransley. "I cried at the end, it was beautiful" Gail Duff, founder of TRADS Folk Art. These special open air performances are part of a wider horse drawn tour visiting rural and isolated places in Sussex and Kent. For full details please check www.sabotagetheatre.com

Diary dates are:

- Garage Safari 6th September • Last Night of the Proms 12th September • Craft Fair 14th November and
- Chicory Tip is returning for News Year Eve. More details of all these later!

For some months the committee has been discussing what we could do to improve the hall. There has been a wide variety of suggestions, all of which have been debated and the practicalities of each discussed. The start of a medium term project it has been agreed that the next part of the continuing modernisation of the hall is improving the front entrance to make the hall more welcoming, more secure and to stop the water seeping in through the front porch enclosure. The proposed inclusion of shelves for books should help 'tidy up' considerably.

Replacement lighting in the main hall is scheduled for August 3rd for one week – LED lights which will be dimmable, so they will be bright for sporting events and intimate for parties. Unfortunately the hall will need to be closed to enable the work to take place. Workmen will be on site during the day, in the evening there will be no lighting in the building and the scaffolding tower will remain erected. This means access to the hall represents a health and safety hazard. (Yes, we know this may seem overkill, but we have been informed once by someone hurting themselves using the hall during building works, so it's once bitten twice shy). The ceiling will be repainted once the fitting has been completed. At the time of writing the actual date is not known but it will entail another 3 days closure. Not exactly what we want, but there is little choice and we do want to keep the hall in good condition and somewhere people want to use.

LAST MONTH WE REMINDED HALL USERS OF THE NEED TO KEEP NOISE WITHIN REASONABLE LIMITS, ESPECIALLY WHEN THE DOORS AND WINDOWS ARE OPEN. We are aware some hirers may have missed this so once again: if the volume is raised, then doors and windows should be kept shut. Music should stop at 11.30pm. (Unless, a successful application for an extension has been made). REMEMBER THE HALL IS WELL USED BY MANY RESIDENTS AND IF WE LOSE THE LICENCES, THE IMPACT WILL BE FELT BY ALL THE ORGANISATIONS MEMBERS.

Capel has an active community and the village hall is well used, whether by the WI, Parish Council or by the other various organisations who meet for sports or leisure activities. There is something for all ages. Details of these are in the hall. Some, like short mat bowls are in the hall several times a week, others, like the gardeners' show are quarterly events. If you are new to the village or recently retired there are lots of opportunities to get involved either on a social basis or to join some of the committees. Most organisations are happy for you to attend taster session to see if the activities suit you. Details are in the hall or in Grapevine. * There is some capacity for private hiring, so if you would like to organise a party come and have a look round. There are two halls, which can be hired separately or together. The main hall has plenty of tables and chairs and there is still space for dancing or running round. A professional PA system means you can hear the music or speaker if you have one – we are happy to show people how to use it, in fact we'd rather give a demonstration that have someone find out by trial and error how it works – or doesn't. Problems have been reported when microphones are not switched off after use. Trustees are therefore suggesting that the batteries are removed when not in use and hirers bring batteries for their event. This will ensure that the microphone will last the duration of your event. There is a stage with curtains – you could use this for the disco, band, speaker or you could put some chairs there so adults can sit and watch the children run around on the main floor. For AV events there is an electrically driven projection screen, whilst for that very special party there is a net to release balloons. The small hall is perfect for more intimate groups or meetings, or can be used as the chill out space or food/drink service area. Both halls have use of the kitchen – including instant boiling water (capacity up to 100 cups in 15 minutes) and plenty of china, mugs and cups. A separate hand washing sink complies with Food Hygiene Regulations. The electrically operated shutter allows you to close the kitchen off so your guests can party on while the washer uppers tidy up. Hire either or both halls, depending on how much space you need. Licenced for most things (except hypnosis and boxing) including sale of alcohol, PRS, raffles. If you would like to start a new club or activity then talk to the letting secretary about when a regular booking can be made.

Plantlife's hugely successful 'Bee Scene' survey has been rescued by family-owned cereal maker Nature's Path, after its original funding had ended. Over 30,000 children have already taken part in the wild flower survey since its launch in 2010. Now thousands more will have the opportunity to explore the nature on their doorstep and learn about the wild flowers growing there. Families can discover whether their local area is good for bumblebees by looking for bee-friendly wild flowers such as foxgloves, dandelions and clovers in their local green spaces. The results are then uploaded onto a virtual meadow map of the UK.

The survey raises awareness and understanding in children of the importance of biodiversity in their local area, starting them on a path to enjoying wild flowers and realising their importance as part of our natural heritage. It also helps them understand the importance of wild plants for our declining pollinators. 90% of teachers who did the survey reported that 'Bee scene' had given them new learning about the natural environment and helped pupils understand that different wild plants are important for bees.

Nature's Path has a strong commitment to sustainability and the natural environment and has stepped in to enable the Bee Scene initiative to reach many thousands more children and families this year after its National Lottery funding ended. A spokesperson comments "As an organic, family owned company, with a strong commitment to the natural environment we recognise the importance of educating children early about the importance of our wild flowers and the pollinators that rely on them. We are thrilled to be able to support Plantlife to continue this fantastic survey, so that many more children and families can take part and 'Bee Scene'.

'Bee Scene' is a simple and effective way to encourage children and their families into their local parks or countryside - to enjoy them together away from the television screen, computer games and other pressures of modern life. By using a simple flower key, they are able to count different flower shapes and colours and look out for bumblebees, so helping children understand how valuable their local green spaces are for wildlife. Full details and bee scene resources are available online at www.plantlife.org.uk/beescene

Road verges are one of the most important, best loved and frequently viewed habitats in the country... So why are they still being destroyed? A new Plantlife study shows that Britain's road verges are home to 703 species of wild plants, more than in any other part of our landscape, and 87 of them are either threatened with extinction or heading that way. In addition, 88% of these wild plants provide nectar and pollen for bees and other insects, making road verges essential refuges for insect life; bird's-foot trefoil alone is a food plant for 132 species of insect.

In addition, 21 of the 25 Nation's Favourite Wildflowers grow on road verges. From cowslips and bluebells in spring to swathes of cow parsley and ox-eye daisies in early summer, our verges are home to most of the 25 favourite wild flowers as voted for by the public. And with 30 million drivers in the UK, they're the most frequently viewed habitat too, providing many people with their only regular daily contact with nature. But in much of Britain road verges are still being needlessly cut down in full flower threatening the wildflowers and the wildlife that depend on them. Many councils have already started cutting verges - much too early in the year for flowers to be able set seed, and greatly reducing one of the most important food banks for our ailing bees and other pollinators.

Dr Trevor Dines, Plantlife's Botanical Specialist, explains, "Over 97% of meadows have been destroyed in England since the 1930s. In many areas, rural road verges are the last remaining stretches of natural habitat for our wildlife. Road safety is the absolute priority, but we know that verges can be managed better for wildlife whilst remaining safe for motorists. This means adopting some simple changes to management - like a delay in cutting to allow seed to be set - so that wildflowers can thrive".

Plantlife has produced new management guidelines and is urging the public to sign a petition asking local councils to adopt them. Some councils are leading the way. Trials in Dorset, for example, are investigating how to combat the over-vigorous growth of grass on fertile verges (which is both detrimental to wildflowers and obscures driver sight-lines), by stripping turf, using semi-parasitic yellow rattle to stunt grass growth and even grazing verges with sheep. Plantlife is helping to showcase the work of councils like Dorset to show others that it can be done. Our guidelines are being currently being applied to 11,700 km of verge covering 2,300 hectares of verges - that's equivalent to 2.5 times the area of remaining upland hay meadow in the UK - and with the public's support we can do even more.

Dr Dines adds, "If we just give them a chance, wildflowers can return. Meadow crane's-bill was once widespread in meadows - hence its name - but is now more commonly found on road verges. It spreads readily when cutting is delayed and it's allowed to set seed. Maybe it's time to change its name to "verge crane's-bill".

Entrance Fee for “The Scramble Experience”

The Battle of Britain Memorial Site Trustees would like to offer one ‘residents pass’ per household. This would offer free entry for the bearer and a 10% reduction on the entry price to the Scramble Experience for up to 4 accompanying persons (i.e. 1 free entry and up to 4 discounted entries per visit). Passes would only be issued on personal application to the site and with a proof of residence. Passes would be renewable annually and the discounts would only be applicable to entry to the Experience. These passes would only be valid out of season from 1st October to 1st March.

The Parish Council thank the Battle of Britain Memorial Trustees for negotiating this for our residents, it is very much appreciated.

In trying to move forward a project of installing a bus shelter outside the Battle of Britain site, the requirement of obtaining a Kent County Council grant, is to show evidence of public consultation.

With that in mind could we please ask for comments and your thoughts on this subject. Thank you.

Now taking names, addresses and payment for the Garage Sale on September 6th.

The cost is still the same £5.00. If you would like to join in this fantastic day could you put £5.00 in an envelope with your name and address on, it then goes on the map, and post it through my door at 29 Albany Road. Hope for good weather! Cherry.

GARAGE SALE SAFARI - SUNDAY 6th SEPTEMBER - 10 am to 4 p.m.

The closing date to be included on the list of addresses on maps for the Garage Sale Safari, is Sunday 30th August.

Any received after this date will be put on a board in the village hall car park on the day. Please phone Cherry 255114 to book. Still only £5 and we do all the advertising to bring in the customers for you. Maps will be available, for 50p, on 1st September at the Farmers Market and on the day at the Village Hall. Parking is being provided on the village green, by kind permission of the Parish Council, weather permitting, which should alleviate some of the congestion on the roads. Refreshments will be available at the Village Hall and the Church hall, to raise funds. We would kindly ask for refreshments to be provided/sold only at these two venues due to Health & Hygiene legislation, laws and regulations. i.e. anyone providing food products for public consumption must have a health & hygiene certificate and kitchen registration documents from the local council. Public Liability Insurance should also be held.

We look forward to another successful event with customers coming from miles around, just keep fingers crossed for some fine weather!

As schools break up for the Summer period, many parents will be applying for the Young Persons Travel Pass, ready for when their children start the school's Autumn trimester. These passes are issued under a discretionary scheme, operated by Kent County Council, over the last few years to help ease the financial pressures on the shoulders of many parents. The scheme is temporarily in place to provide subsidised bus travel for children aged from 7-11 years of age, for 16-21 year olds in care or care leavers, also young carers who are 16-18 and in full time education and all applicants must reside in Kent.

Kent County Council receives no funding from Central Government to run this scheme. The pass offers discounted bus travel from Monday to Friday. Kent County Council has to reimburse the bus operators for the fares that would otherwise have been paid for by the parents.

On average each pass costs £588, which is offset by a charge to parents. Due to budget pressures, Kent County Council proposes a £50 reduction in the subsidy for the full cost of the pass, raising the price to the user by £50 from 3rd September 2015. This will mean £250 is paid towards the pass by the parent and the remaining cost of £338 is paid by Kent County Council. The Young Persons Travel Pass remains one of the most generous schemes of its kind outside the greater London area to access Kent public bus transport network from 06h00-19h00, Monday to Friday, from 3rd September to 31st July. Children who receive free school meals, their parents pay £100 towards the cost of the pass for the academic year. There is no charge for young carers or young people in care. To ensure you receive the Young Persons Travel Pass for the start of the first trimester in September, KCC must receive your application BEFORE Friday the 17 July 2015. Should you fail to get your application in by the 17 July, it is unlikely you will receive the Young Persons Travel Pass in time for the start of the new term in September AND you will be required to pay the standard fare, which is non-refundable; until as such time you receive your pass. To apply on line go to www.kent.gov.uk/YoungPersonsTravelPass

In my newsletter article for June, where I expressed concerns regarding the limited amount of time of up to only 72 hours, for obtaining of a pass code from DVLA, prior to your intention to hire a car, that pass code being your consent for the car hire company to contact DVLA to confirm or negate whether your licence has endorsements, which could affect whether you pay a higher insurance premium or even be able to hire a car. The Government has now increased that period from 3 days to 3 weeks to obtain an access code from the DVLA prior to approaching a car hire company. So a welcomed improvement over the original regulation.

Cllr Geoffrey Lymer, Kent County Councillor - Dover West Ward.

Next session will be on Monday, 10th August 6pm – 7pm

Are you interested in promoting positive behavioural change in your parish?

Or is there an issue you may wish to discuss with your Councillor?

Then meet your local District Councillor Frederick Scales and County Councillor Geoff Lymer, between 18:00 hours and 19:00 hours, on the Second Monday of the month, at Capel-le-Ferne Village Hall (small hall), Lancaster Avenue, Capel-le-Ferne. CT18 7LX

The support by your Kent County Councillor and Dover District/Ward Councillor, as a result of many emails being sent to and fro since June, has resulted in an achievement of the following result.

Kent County Council has allocated £50,000 from its Local Transport Plan in 2015/16 for a trial public health scheme across the county. The trial is likely to take place in three or four wards and involve signed-only 20 miles per hour speed limits. The County Council has ranked all wards across the county in relation to the following public health measures:

1) Admission rate per 10,000 resident population for COPD (chronic obstructive pulmonary disease) and asthma by ward, 2011/12 to 2013/14; 2) Obese children rates per 100 by ward; 3) Admission rate per 10,000 resident population for Road Traffic Collisions by ward, 2011/12 to 2013/14; 4) Percentage of road traffic collisions on roads where the speed limit is 30 miles per hour involving pedestrians or pedal cyclists by ward, 01.07.2011 to 30.06.2014.

Confirmation that Capel-le-Ferne ward ranked in the top four across the county on a combination of these measures. However, this relates to the ward, which covers a much larger geographic area than just the village. Capel-le-Ferne is likely to be included in the trial but currently there will be checking on the technical feasibility of the scheme. As mentioned, this trial will involve traffic signs only and there will be no new traffic calming features introduced as part of the scheme. The trial is likely to cover most of the residential roads in Capel-le-Ferne village, including Capel Street but excluding B2011.

Although the scheme will be a trial, the County Council must follow the same process as for any other permanent traffic regulation order. As such, Capel-le-Ferne Parish Council and other local elected representatives, will be consulted before any scheme is implemented.

CAPEL-LE-FERNE EVENING WI

Hello everyone well here we are again. Hopefully summer has arrived. But we cannot complain about last month, although we did have a couple of days of rain here and there. Well we would not have lovely gardens if it was not for the rain now and then. With fingers crossed it keeps shining for all those Summer Fayre's still to come. We were lucky with our Village Summer Fayre, the sun shone all day for us. WI cakes and crafts went down a treat. So thank you to everyone who supported us.

Coleta Spillett our Vice-President took our July Meeting and after a few hitches (Operation Stack has a lot to answer for in our area) commenced the evening with everyone singing Jerusalem. Coleta then introduced our Speaker for the evening Rosemary Piddock. Rosemary had visited us before and we knew we were in for a good evening of entertainment. She gave us a very informative talk on 'Women of the 1st World War' and their importance of contributing to the War Effort. She was ably assisted by her husband John on the slideshow. She spoke about various famous women, Lady Astor, Emily Pankhurst, Marie Curie etc., of that period including one woman who disguised herself as a man who was determined to go to the battlefield and do her part for the war effort. She then talked about the WI's role in World War 1 and to its founding in 1915. The Vote of Thanks was given by Caroline Bunting. The Competition was 'A Wartime Recipe' and if you made the item then you received an extra point. 1st Caroline Bunting; 2nd Gwen Beaumont; 3rd Betty Crocker. Caroline cut the 'Eggless Ginger Cake' into wartime ration slices and as many as it would go around had a piece to taste. After Refreshments everyone split into teams and we had another session of hilarious charades.

The July WI outing proved a little challenging in terms of coping with 'Operation Stack'. The Twinning Outing was planned for Maidstone and reluctantly we cancelled it. Nothing though, not traffic, nor weather, was going to deter our planned educational trip to Lullingstone Castle and the Lavender Fields at Castle Farm.

Justin collected us from Capel and after a brief stop to collect our fellow WI members at Alkham we set off. Two accidents delayed us but the air conditioning kept us cool and the speed enabled us to enjoy the country views. We even had a couple of trips through a ford, leading to one member asking everyone to lift their feet. Once we arrived Philip met us at the gates before guiding us round the castle. The tour of the house completed we moved into the gardens to be greeted by 80 WI themed scarecrows – connected to the W.I. Centenary Celebrations.

Moments after Tom Hart Dyke appeared and took us on a tour of the World Garden. Passionate about horticulture he shared with us the conception whilst held captive by Colombian guerrillas. They told him he had 5 hours to live so he spent the time designing a garden in which to display plants of the world. He tells the story in a very matter of fact way and seems to live each day to the full. All too soon we were back on the coach and off to Lullingstone Park for a Ploughman's lunch or picnic. From there it was a short walk along the track to Castle Farm for our visit to the Lavender fields. Several varieties are grown so there is successional flowering. Many were in full bloom, giving rows of mauve coloured bushes and a distinctive fragrance on the air. Our expert guides shared with us the many differences between lavender and lavandin, often incorrectly all called lavender. Both have therapeutic properties though one is a relaxant aiding sleep the other is a stimulant more powerful than caffeine. Both are good anti-bacterial, lavender is good for treating burns but lavandin makes them worse. There was the lovely story of the lady who took lavender but gave her husband lavandin – that way she got to sleep before he started snoring. No one dared ask what happened if she snored!

A trip round the distillery learning about the various strengths of oil depending on their proposed use, then to the farm shop where we were treated to freshly pressed apple juice and lavender biscuits. The shop was busy until it was time to journey home on a very fragrant coach. All agreed it had been a very successful day, so huge thanks to Ros and Cherry for their organisation and the Committee who approved this as an educational trip which turned out to be great fun. More in the future please ladies.

CAPEL-LE-FERNE FARMERS MARKET - Now in our 13th Year

Every Tuesday 10 a.m. to 12.30 p.m.

Village Hall, Lancaster Avenue, Capel-le-Ferne, Folkestone CT18 7LX

Finalist 2015 in the Best Farmers Market Category and the Kent Technology & Enterprise Award 2004. 5* Rating by Dover District Council 5* Rating by Environmental Health Department.

Registered with Produced in Kent, The Kent Farmers Market Association and Big Barn.

Visit us on Facebook <https://www.facebook.com>

I wanted to begin my first newsletter by thanking Jenny firstly for the terrific job she has done over the past 12 years to promote the Farmer's Market in Capel. I know her shoes will be hard to fill, but all I can say is that I will try my best and will be working closely with Cherry and Julie. The market still relies a lot on volunteers to help set up the tables, run the kitchen and then clear up afterwards, so if you think you might like to help please call Cherry on 255114 and she can tell you what happens.

We have two new stalls next week one is selling delicious Turkish delight, nuts and seeds, and the other is selling potato salad, and other Turkish delicacies. Look out for them; I hope they will find our market a success for them both. Please try to visit the small craft hall, too. There are some lovely ladies selling their home made crafts. Carol sells all manner of lovely baby blankets aimed at car seats but will be equally useful for cots, prams etc., she is also selling balls of wool so you might be tempted to make your own, as well as buttons ribbons etc., well worth a look. If there is something you like but perhaps want a different colour talk to her, I'm sure she will be able to help. Theresa sells all manner of crocheted goods, including ponchos, which are apparently making a comeback. Also, baby cardigans etc. I sell lovely handmade greetings cards. If I don't have exactly what you want I can make it for you (at no extra cost) usual items are wedding, anniversary and christening, get well and of course birthdays, and soon there will be a range of Christmas cards. Even if we don't want it and are never ready for it Christmas is coming. James is usually in the craft room too, with his photographic equipment ready to take lovely pictures of you and your family.

Also in the craft room is the postal service where you can buy stamps, post letters and parcels and most of the other services offered by the main post offices.

Julie organises a weekly draw where for 50p you can win vouchers which can be spent at any of the tables in the market. Good luck with that, if you win your name will be on a board where you come into the market. Cherry and Jenny are usually on hand to greet you when you arrive and if you have any questions they will usually be able to answer them. Also in the entrance hall are jigsaw puzzles and books which you are able to 'borrow' for a small donation. If you are a member the Kent County Library parks outside from 12 noon and you are able to borrow return and renew books there.

There is a photocopying service quiz sheets are available at the door, the winner will receive £25.

Also the village Community Warden and/or our PSO are usually on hand at the market to answer any questions you may have.

Please note: The products for sale are usually produced by the stallholder, locally, unless clearly marked and we ensure our producers hold the relevant certificates including public liability insurances and, where necessary, health and hygiene certificate and kitchen registration documents.

So, that is my first newsletter. I hope you were able to read it to the end without dozing off. If you have any further questions please come and find me in the craft room every Tuesday between 10 and 12.30 where I will try my best to answer you, or pass you on to someone who can. Thanks, Lyn.
