

CAPEL-LE-FERNE PARISH COUNCIL

Some of the items discussed at the meetings in December 2012 and January 2013.

- Historic Notice Board, Lancaster Avenue Playing Field: further investigation with Dover District Council on reinstatement being sought.
- New bus shelter opposite White Cliffs Park to be installed (funding by Kent County Council and White Cliffs Management – Maintenance Capel Parish Council).
- Draft budget for 2013/2014 agreed and Parish Precept set by Councillors at £15,485. Grapevine commercial advertising charges to remain unchanged.
- Highway issues raised – cat's eyes on B2011 near Royal Oak Public House, Clerk to report to Kent Highways.
- Update on Community Recreation Project on Page 7.

Neighbourhood Watch – Parish Councillor Phil Jones would like to see the Neighbourhood Watch Scheme reinstated in the Village. He is eager to make the Village a safer environment for us all and offer assistance for vulnerable residents. He will be undergoing communication with the relevant NHW Scheme organisers and representative from Kent Police. He hopes to receive shortly leaflets to distribute on the Scheme. But would welcome your assistance!

If you would like to join in or help Phil, please contact him on 01303 243514. Email: philipjones369@btinternet.com

Next Parish Council meeting is on Tuesday, 19th February at 7.30pm in the Village Hall (Small Hall).

Further information on any of the above or to contact Parish Council, please write to Parish Clerk, 39 Victoria Road, Capel-le-Ferne.

Do you know any screenagers? Or are you even a screenager yourself?

They spend long hours spent in front of computer screens, playing games – trying for that best ever score, or the next level of the game that they are playing. A few years ago my son asked for a PlayStation one Christmas. It was carefully unpacked, connected and switched on. The first game was great fun – it involved driving Lorries across the USA, against the clock, of course. He pressed the button to start, and off he went – but reaching the next level was tricky. Eventually, he came up with a solution – get Dad to do it. At each attempt at reaching the next level I ran out of time. “Go on, Dad,” he would say. “Have another go!”

Lent this year begins during February. For Christians it is a time of preparation for Easter, which is why some of us give things up for Lent. However, a friend of mine is also fond of pointing out that the word Lent means Spring – a time of growth, not just for nature coming back to life after the winter, but for us, too, as people. Love, says the New Testament, keeps no score of wrongs – in other words, God never gets tired of our new beginnings, and Lent is a good time for them. Screenagers know all about new beginnings, and the message of Lent: Go on! Have another go! Brian Williams

Benefice of Alkham, Capel and Hougham Lent Lunches

On each Wednesday in Lent members of our benefice will be hosting a series of lunches to which all are welcome. For £3.00 per person, you will be served with soup, bread and cheese, and ALL proceeds will be donated by the host/hostess to a local charity of their choice. Turn up anytime between 12:30pm and 2pm to partake of a tasty meal and enjoy the company of others from all three villages. The venues are:-

February 13th 143, Old Dover Road, Capel – hostess Coleta Spillett
February 20th The Old Village School, Stonyway Lane, Church Hougham – hostess Wendy Finnis
February 27th Forstall Cottage, Alkham Valley Road, Alkham – hostess Sue Lees
March 6th 56, Alexandra Road, Capel – hostess Vad Blake
The venues for the 13th, 20th and 27th March will be posted in next month's Grapevine.
For further information please contact Jerry Spillett on 01303 242146.

Capel-le-Ferne Church Hall Fund

As we enter 2013 we once again have a vicar and are very pleased to welcome Brian Williams.

The Church Hall Fund achieved a lot in 2012 and the hall has been re-furnished but there is still much to do as it needs new lighting and heating and also a new Cooker and Fridge so fund raising is still very much required and we have a very varied and interesting programme for our 2nd Friday in the Month Evenings which so far are now complete from March up to September and are as follows:

All evenings start at 7.30pm with doors open from 7pm and take place in the church rather than the church hall and the cost is £5 unless otherwise stated

March 8th - Nicholas Reed on- 'The Man Who Never Was'. Nicholas will be talking about his father Major Ronnie Reed who was Case Officer for Agent Zigzag and whose photo was used for the face behind 'The Man who Never Was' and whether or not you have heard of the part that 'The Man who Never Was' played in Operation Zigzag in WW2 it will be fascinating learning more about this intriguing development of the War. Why did Agent Zigzag give Ronnie his Iron Cross, awarded to Zigzag by Hitler himself? Why not come and find out.

April 12th - Carl Spencer - Where did Swing come from. A talk with Musical Illustrations. We are very fortunate in having Carl come to talk (and perhaps play) to us. You can hear and see him in action if you Google Spencers Nighthawks. Carl really is one of the finest Dixieland and Swing Cornet players in the Country

May 10th - Ann Finney on Glen Miller

June 14th - David McCarthy UK Rep for The International Al Jolson Society will present Al Jolson- the man and his Music- The Life and Music of the World's First Super Star

David gave us an introduction to Jolson last year which was an intriguing eye opener to many and he has been invited back due to many requests to hear more of Jolie.

July 12th - Keith Radford - Back again to give us his latest talk Musical Theatre from the 50's to the present day.

This talk will particularly appeal to those who come on my theatre trips as he will be covering many of the shows that we have been to over the last 13 years.

August 10th (Saturday) - The Folkestone Agape Gospel Choir and Jazz Group

September 13th - Dr John Ray on The Battle of Britain

Tickets are available from me. phone 01303 251403 or e mail to johne.oliver@talktalk.net

I am arranging a few days to Keukenhof Gardens in Holland from Tuesday 9th April to Friday 12th April.

Hotel is Den Haag Noondorp and this is half board.

The price for this with coach & crossing is £278.00.

Pick-ups in Capel

We would have one day in Amsterdam.

Gardens not included in the price.

For more details - ring Cherry 01303 255114.

The Carol Service held in the Village Hall

Held in December, this was again very popular with the Hall full. Capel School did us proud again with their choir and famous "Candle Dance". St Radigunds' choir sang some carols and tea and mince pies were served afterwards. The collection this year was for the Winter Shelter and £150.00 was raised for them. A very worthwhile cause!

See you in December!

The Old Harveians Association will present The Railway Swing Band in a concert at The Harvey Grammar School for their 4th

Annual concert on Wednesday, 6th March 2013.

Tickets are £10 and are available from John Oliver on 01303 251403 or Email: johne.oliver@talktalk.net or enquiries@harveygs.kent.sch.uk

The proceeds of this year's concert made a major contribution to a magnificent sum raised by the OHA which enabled us to buy a brand new minibus for the School. Times are hard for school funds and the OHA always try to help the school with extracurricular activities. So if you went to Harvey or have sons, grandsons, nephews etc., who have benefited from a good education at Harvey, or just love big band music, then why not give your selves a treat and come along to our next great concert. The earlier you buy your tickets, the better the seats you get as they are numbered!

CANCER RESEARCH JUMBLE SALE

The organisers would like to give a big thank you to all the villagers who either, gave jumble, attended, or bought raffle tickets at the recent jumble sale at the village hall, in aid of The Royal Marsden Hospital cancer research fund.

Once again we had marvellous support from everyone, and managed to raise a staggering £936.45, which has been sent off to this worthy cause. Who, after all, has not either had a friend, relative, or perhaps even them-selves suffer the trauma of a brush with this awful disease?

We are always amazed how the good people of Capel continue to support this event (now in its 33rd year)! So many people go out of their way to make it a success that it is impossible to thank them individually, they know who they are, and perhaps they will accept this as their public thank you.

We would now like to call upon you all to start putting anything you think we may be able to sell to one side for

"Our next jumble sale is on 13th April 2013"

Don't worry we will remind you nearer the time about who to contact or where to take it.

Best wishes to you all and thank you once again for your continued support.

The Organisers!

Hello all - hope everyone had a wonderful Christmas and new year. Just a short message to keep villagers up to date! As most of you are aware I will be a first time mummy! Therefore, I will shortly be going on maternity leave as from early February. My colleague, Dave Bish the Support Warden in the Dover team, will be my temporary replacement. Dave will come out to Capel approximately 3 times a week to cover.

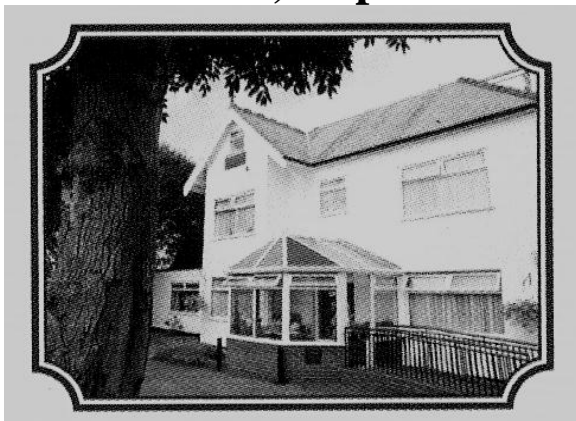

I will be handing over my phone/telephone number to Dave therefore the telephone number you reach myself on will stay the same.

Everyone have a wonderful 2013 and will see you all very soon :)

Thank you.

CAPEL-LE-FERNE BOWLING CLUB

The Booze and Bowls party finished our year on a high note, with plenty to eat and drink and a small gift to every member from the East Kent Bowls Association.

2013 starts with our league team in second place in the first division; this makes us the short mat equivalent of Man. United. But there is still a long way to go.

Boys V Girls competition - On the 3rd February we will be holding our annual Boys V Girls competition. Usually the "boys" act like gentlemen and let the girls win BUT this year the gloves are off and the Boys mean to win by fair means or foul.

Quiz Night - The Bowls Club annual quiz night will be held on the 19th March in the Village Hall. 7.15pm for a 7.30 start - Teams of up to 6 per table at a cost of £2 per person. Bring your own food and drink. There will be a grand raffle with fabulous prizes and our quiz master this year will be Jenny Carter. Everyone welcome!

Some sad news - All copies of the bowls club nude calendar have sold out, but some copies might still be available on Ebay or at the next Boot Fair.

Capel Outdoor Recreational Facilities Update Olympic & Jubilee Legacy

FABULOUS NEWS TO START 2013!

Christmas wishes do come true – the Sport England Inspired Facilities grant for £49,735 was approved, together with £9,250 from QE II Fields in Trust, and a further £2,500 Neighbourhood Forum grant! The total now stands at £81,344 - the Parish Council and its sub-group are making plans to start installing the recreational facilities within the next few months.

You will see below a revised plan to illustrate the location of the outdoor gym, mini skate park, zip wire and petanque area. Planning permission has been granted and work is being carried out to ensure that the best suited equipment is chosen.

Many people have been working very hard to ensure that this project is successful and we are sure you would like to join us in saying a BIG THANK YOU!

Even though a lot of money has been raised, there is still a long way to go and the project team are still beaver away to try and secure further funds.

Please let either one of us or the Parish Council know if you have any suggestions.

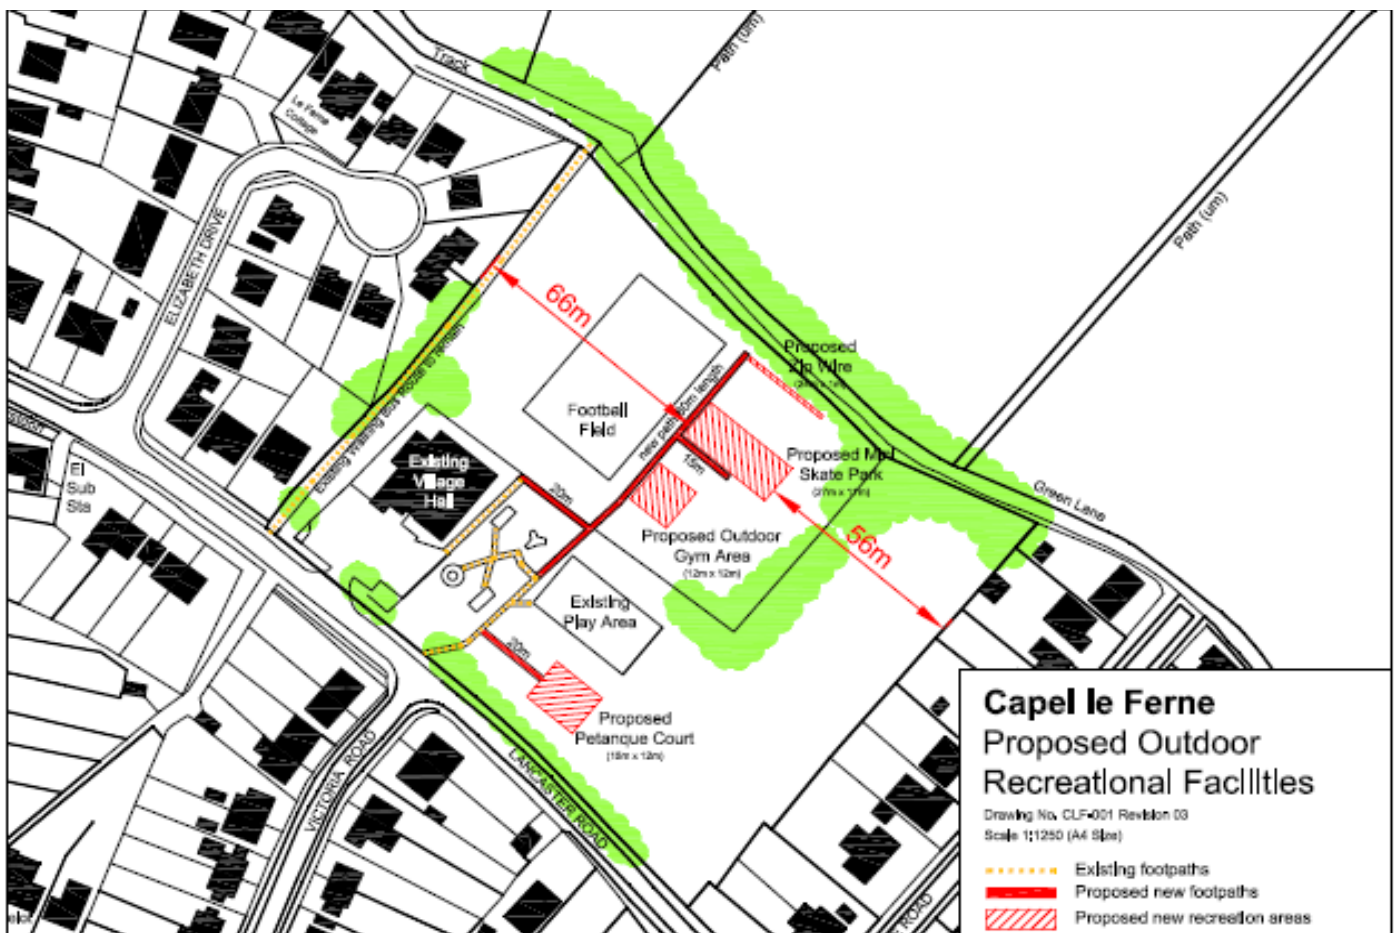

Here's to a Happy and Healthy New Year!

CAPEL EVENING WI

Happy New Year to everyone from Capel Evening WI! This is my first time at writing for the 'Grapevine' so I hope that you will all bear with me until I get into the full swing of doing it. Jayne Stone as our new President took her first meeting of 2013. She welcomed all members to our January meeting. After the evening's business Jayne introduced Pat Marshall who gave us a very informative talk on 'Life with my Guide dog'. Pat told us that having not been born blind it had been more difficult to her disability and she could not have done this without the support of her husband and her faithful guide dog. Pat kept us amused with her tales and anecdotes and at times had us in stitches at times with her stories. This was followed by Refreshments and the rest of the business and Members time which, this month was a quiz that foxed us all. The competition was a 'Dog' of any medium (except the breathing kind). There was the most unusual assortment of dogs (except the breathing kind) on one table and judging was made by a show of coins for ACCW.

Next month's meeting will be on 12th February in the Village Hall. The Speaker will be Mr Colin Garner on his talk is on 'Hotter Shoes'. All new members are welcome. We have lots of interesting things going on during the month, not just 'Jam and Jerusalem'. We even do Dart's, (lots of people do not realise that WI ladies can do this as well). Capel Evening won the WI League Trophy in 2012. That's all for this month hope everyone keeps safe and that we have more sunshine than rain and not too much of the 'white stuff'.

Capel le Ferne Evening Women's Institute

Meetings are held in the Village Hall, starting at 7.30pm.

Visitors are welcome and may attend up to 3 meetings without becoming members.

FARMERS MARKET NEWS - FIND US ON FACEBOOK!THE TASTE OF KENT AWARDS 2013 - The voting has now closed – we now await the results!*CHRISTMAS SPECIAL FARMERS MARKET

We had a superb morning. The atmosphere was great, with carol singers from the W.I. and Capel Primary School. A collection for Demelza House netted over £70, thank you everyone. Several stallholders & helpers wore fancy dress and Santa was in his Grotto. The mulled wine and mince pies went down well too!

We now start the New Year on a quieter note, but, apart from the Craft Stalls, who will return soon, we have a full complement of stallholders selling everything from essentials to treats.

Mogador, (European dishes) is doing well, as are Damari's (Italian dishes), Smoked & Spice (smoked cheese, fish & meat) and Go Feast are adding South African dishes to their products. Eureka House Products provide an assortment of sauces and condiments to compliment the above dishes.

A Newsletter is sent out as and when any news comes along regarding stalls and events etc. If you would like to receive one, please send your email address to capelfarmersmarket@yahoo.co.uk - please be assured your email address will not be forwarded onto anyone else, and it will also be hidden from all other recipients. This Newsletter is also added to our FACEBOOK page.

We are still looking for help with setting up and clearing away, on a rota basis. If you feel you could help us in this way, please contact Jenny or Cherry.

Posters are available, if anyone could possibly display one for us, they can also be downloaded from our website.

Please note: The products for sale are produced (in the majority of cases) by the stallholder, in Kent, unless clearly marked otherwise.

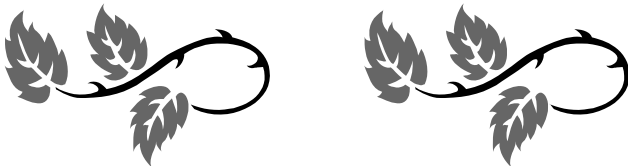

Our present products are:- Fish, Meat, Eggs, Preserves, Jams, Honey & Pickles, Sauces & Condiments, Delicatessen, Smoked Fish, Meat & Cheese, European, South African & Italian dishes, Bread, Cakes & Pastries, Vegetables, Fruit, Chocolates, Fudge, Truffles & Sweets, Fruit Liqueurs, Plants and a few Crafts. We are hoping James Taylor Photography, will return soon, after a very long illness with his portable studio for portraits, passport, driving licence photos etc, printing your holiday snaps, bookings for weddings, parties etc. in the small hall. We should point out that we ensure our producers hold the relevant certificates i.e. a public liability insurance and, where necessary, health and hygiene certificate and kitchen registration documents

News from the Battle of Britain Memorial Trust

Custodians of the National Memorial to the Few, Capel-le-Ferne, Kent

Help us make 2013 the year The Wing takes flight and is a particularly great year for those of us who want to keep alive the story of the Battle of Britain.

As we make resolutions to lose weight, keep fit, stop smoking or be less grumpy in the mornings, the Trust is getting ready to begin work on its new visitor centre at the National Memorial to the Few at Capel-le-Ferne in Kent. The Trust and its supporters have been working hard to raise the £2.8m needed to build and fit out The Wing, an exciting multi-media visitor experience that will attempt to bring to life the story of the Battle of Britain using video walls, special effects and hands-on exhibits – and 2013 is the year work is due to begin. This will not be a museum but an audio-visual experience that will highlight the heroism and the sacrifice behind the names on the Christopher Foxley-Norris Memorial Wall that stands just yards from where the new experience will be built. Folkestone surveyors Godden Allen Lawn came up with the stunning design for the building, which is based on the shape of R J Mitchell's iconic Spitfire wing, and local contractors will be invited to tender for the work. The site on the White Cliffs between Folkestone and Dover has been cleared, and archaeological investigations have been carried out to check that there is nothing significant that could delay the project. "We have the planning permission, we have the site and we have the commitment to build this much-needed visitor and Education Centre," explained Trust Chairman Richard Hunting CBE. "Our plan is to start work this spring so that we can have The Wing finished and fitted out towards the end of 2014. We will then schedule the official opening in July 2015, during the 75th anniversary of the Battle of Britain, when some of our veterans will take a well-deserved Centre stage. "What we still need, though, is cash, and we would urge local businesses and individuals to contribute to this great cause. Please see our website at www.battleofbritainmemorial.org or send a cheque made payable to Battle of Britain Memorial Trust to the Secretary at PO Box 337 West Malling, Kent ME6 9AA."

Spreading the word - The Trust achieved national coverage of its appeal for the £2.8m the new Wing building will cost when a double page spread in the Sunday Mirror was accompanied by a picture of some of the surviving veterans. The picture was taken at the reception in the RAF Club in Piccadilly that followed the funeral of Flt Lt William Walker AE. It shows (left to right, back row first) Wg Cdr Bob Foster DFC, Sqn Ldr Tony Iveson DFC, Fg Off Ken Wilkinson, Flt Lt Bill Green, Sqn Ldr Nigel Rose, Flt Lt Owen Burns and Wg Cdr Tom Neil DFC, AFC.

The funeral of William, who at 99 was thought to have been the oldest surviving Battle of Britain veteran, took place at St Clement Danes in London and was very well attended. The publicity surrounding his sad passing renewed the interest in the collection of William's poems published in 2011 in aid of the Wing Appeal and more than 200 copies have been sold in the past few weeks. William signed many of the books because he was determined to help raise as much money for the appeal as possible. If you still haven't ordered your copy of William's book, why not do so now? Just reply to this email (or send an email to malcolm@go4marketing.net), containing your name and address, how many copies you require (see options below) and your preferred method of payment. You will then be contacted to arrange payment and the books will be mailed to your home address.

I would like:

☐ softback copies of his book at £8.50 (inc p&p) ☐ signed softback copies of his book at £11.50 (inc p&p)

☐ hardback copies of his book at £20 (inc p&p) ☐ signed hardback copies of his book at £23 (inc p&p)

I would like to pay by Visa/Mastercard/Maestro Card No Start date Expiry date Issue No (Maestro)..... Security code Amount £..... I would like to pay by cheque made payable to The Battle of Britain Memorial Trust. [Please delete whichever option does not apply] Please also tell us if you would like more information about leaving a legacy to the Battle of Britain Memorial Trust.

Other fund-raising news - One of our supporters is training for two half marathons next year and has set up a fund-raising page to support The Wing. Debb Hackett is planning to run the Bath half marathon in the spring and the Great North Run in the autumn. You can find out more - and sponsor her - by following this link: <https://mydonate.bt.com/fundraisers/fortheFew>

There's more on the website - Take a look at our website at www.battleofbritainmemorial.org – or catch up with us on Facebook by searching for 'Remembering the Few'. Email malcolm@go4marketing.net with any questions, fund-raising ideas or enquiries. And please do what you can to make sure 2013 is as special for the Trust as we sincerely hope it is for you. Come and see us: The Memorial itself is open all year round for those on foot – and our wonderful volunteers keep the shop and café open throughout the summer and on Wednesdays, Saturdays and Sundays throughout the winter.

The volunteers will also open on special occasions for groups (if you ask nicely). To ask nicely, check opening times or find out anything else before visiting just ring 01303 249292 or 01732 870809. The site is approached from either Dover or Folkestone on the B2011 at Capel-le-Ferne; postcode - CT18 7JJ. It's all on the website! More soon; let me know if there is anything you would like information on in a future edition and please feel free to pass this email to friends or family who may be interested. Ask them to send me their email address if they want to be sent this newsletter in future. Please also let me know if you receive more than one copy as I am trying to de-dupe the mailing list.
