From the Vicarage

It's true! St Anthony's Church in Alkham really is haunted! As we had coffee after the service a few Sundays ago, two younger members of our congregation excitedly produced an i-Pad which clearly showed a picture of me standing in the church with a spook looking over my shoulder. Moments later, the same i-Pad revealed that the churchyard was full of them! You couldn't see any of them without an i-Pad of course.

Download something called Pokémon Go onto a smartphone and the screen reveals a map of your surrounding area. It may show a brightly coloured monster or Pokémon nearby for you to catch and train – a Pikachu, perhaps, or a Jigglypuff. Use it to fight other Pokémon at a Pokémon gym – there are two in Capel (I think!) You can stock up with supplies at PokéStops like the one at St Radigund's Church Hall. But once again, without a smartphone you won't see any of this.

At home, we had a deep discussion about what reality is. I pointed out to my son that by running around town clutching his smartphone he was behaving as though Pokémon are real. He retorted that I behave as though God is real, which of course I do. Interestingly, our two quests overlap. I like the idea of hunting Pokémon - it involves fresh air, exercise and, with luck, making new friends. Although the antics of some have led Cologne Cathedral to ban Pokémon Go ("the cathedral is not a playground"), other churches have connected with their PokéStop status by offering squash, biscuits, phone chargers and conversation to passing players.

Confused? Don't worry if you don't follow any of this. Ask any teenager with a smartphone. They will be able to explain it far better than I have...Brian

Capel Church Hall Fund-Programme for 2016

ARE YOU A FAN OF FOLK MUSIC? On Friday 9th of September at 7.30pm (doors open at 7.30pm) we will have an evening quite unlike any we have ever had before in our 2nd Friday of the month entertainment slot in St Radigunds Church, Albany Road, Capel-le-Ferne. FIDDLER & FAFF (Lizzie & Christine) are a musical duo drawing inspiration from the folk tradition, peppered with other influences that take their fancy, from the lyrical and lovely to the toe tapping and quirky, including many of their own songs. Lizzie sings while Christine harmonises whilst playing fiddle or accordion. Whether joyous or sad, poignant or humorous, their songs and performance are always thought provoking and reflect life in its full richness. Tickets £7, which include a cup of tea or coffee and a biscuit are available from me, Phone 01303 251404 to reserve yours and you can pay on the night. All are most welcome to come along and enjoy a rather different evening.

We had a good attendance for Adrian Christian Mires playing Classical guitar on Friday 12th of August. He is a very talented young man who we hope to see back with us again next year after many requests from the enthusiastic audience.

The inspiration was oozing, now we started our own hands on. Eagerly and so excited to begin we selected our squares to make our own master pieces. Then came the crunch. Hand sewing mmm! How to thread a needle. Good job Sarah was there with her up to date gadget - Needle threader! The banter flowed freely and before we realised it our time was up. Hexagons were packed away everybody pleased with their efforts and looking forward to the next episode.

Thanks to Rosemary and Sarah.

If you hire the hall, please remember the playing field is owned by the Parish Council; if you wish to put up a bouncy castle there you need to approach them and comply with current safety requirements. Hirers are welcome to use the field for normal park activities.

Autumn is approaching and with it hopes of an Indian summer. At the village hall, this is time for many of our activities to get back into full swing after the holidays. First is the Garage Safari Sale on Sunday 4th September; we have approached the Parish Council for permission to use the field as a car park. All the maps we sell highlight this and the message is reinforced verbally when anyone comes to the hall. If you're selling please remind visitors to help keep the roads clear.

Ruby and her team will be doing light refreshments at the hall – a slightly different team this year because some of them will be on the map in their own right – and the lovely commercial vans from last year will be selling hot food. Remember that to sell food you need a food and hygiene certificate and valid insurance.

If you would like to hire a table and/or chairs contact Jayne 01303 211480 – they can be collected on Saturday evening and need to be returned by 4.30pm on Sunday evenings. We love hearing the stories of what people sell on Garage Safari day. If you have a story to tell, please share it and let us know if we can publish it.

Next on the programme is the Last Night of the Proms, courtesy of Matt Curtis (Kent PA Hire, Tel: No: 01303 242085). As they say, we couldn't do it without him. This is one of the fundraising activities to raise monies for all the work which needs doing in the hall. One the list is work on the flat roof, work on the floor and redecorating as well as improving disabled access to the hall. Our work programme is now shaping up for 2017, 2018 and 2019.

New Year's Eve – Chicory Tip. Priority is being given to Capel residents so if you are interested ring Ros Chandler to reserve your table 01303 255862.

Sold Out

Boot Fairs start on 30th October; this is Sylvia's last year and, if they are to carry on, we are looking for someone to take over from her. Could it be you? There are only 4 a year so the commitment is not high.

Talking of which, can you spare us under an hour a month? If you are new to the village or recently retired getting involved with the hall is a great way of meeting members of the local community. On one Tuesday per month we'd like some help clearing up after the Farmers' Market. Most stall holders do their own tables but we need to clear up the tea tables and chairs and sweep the floor. Please contact Chairman – Brian Wilson on 01303 627172, Mobile: 07916258684 or Jayne Stone 01303 211480.

If you read 'Grapevine' you will see the number of organisations which use the hall, in fact it is used virtually all day and evening every day except Saturday (when it is available for private hire). The Management Committee is a small band (but beautifully formed some might say) who meet on the first Tuesday of each month. As one or two of our members (me!) move further into retirement we know we need some younger members prepared to carry the baton on. The workload is not onerous and just think of the impact on the village community if we can't get enough help to keep things running.

Open to all residents, the 100+ club is due for renewal at the beginning of next month. For a subscription of £1 per month (£12 for the year) members are entered into a monthly draw. First prize is £25, second £15 and £5 for 3rd, doubled at Christmas. Profits are spent on improvements to the village hall. Ring Jenny Carter on 01303 250298 or ask at the Farmers' Market. The draw will take place at the Committee Meeting on the 1st Tuesday of each month.

News from the Farmers' Market

When the Farmers' Market was started the then organisers, Cherry, Gwyn, Jenny and Mick were told that it would never take off as a weekly event on Tuesdays. How wrong was that advice! Over 14 years later the market is still going strong – in fact a couple of weeks ago we had over 244 visitors.

Stall holders come to Capel-le-Ferne Farmers' Market for variety of reasons, some by invitation and others contact us and ask to come. Often it is a new producer wanting to test the market to find out if there is a demand for whatever the product is. We try to ensure a variety of products as well as making sure all the basics are there. The main hall focusses on the food items and the small hall is full of crafters and the community postal service.

Some stallholders, like Heather, have been with us from the beginning. Shirley's farm eggs are another 'founder stall'. Although Paul is no longer with us, Derek ensures eggs (many double yolkers) are available every week. Land's End nursery now attend in the guise of woollen knits. Shoppers and visitors to the market are now greeted with a beautiful display of plants from Summerfield Nursery. Usually opposite, but sometimes next to her, is Kevin with his van of fruit, all grown in Kent. Without doubt his soft fruits prove the sayings about local foods tasting better than food with many food miles on the clock.

The newest of our stallholders is Mike, with his produce straight from a farm. He is one of the rare examples where the organisers, in order to offer shoppers variety, accept produce from out of Kent. Mike's produce fits the spirit of the Farmers' Market. His produce is direct from an Italian Farm, the olives are free from colourings – look at the 'black' olives and ask him about them. People in other villages talk about his balsamic vinegar. Whilst you can just buy balsamic vinegar in the supermarket, Mike offers a variety, one is even best served on ice cream. If you try to buy his balsamic vinegar he'll ask what you want to use it for and recommend the most suitable.

Marsh produce now co-ordinate the stalls and help fill the gaps in the range. They now sell milk, butter and cheese as well as meat and game. Their sausages come highly recommended. Shopping there is easier because they accept cards. Much of PJs produce comes from local farms, but he gets up at a time of day I didn't know existed to go to Covent Garden to supplement his stock.

Cakes are usually made and sold by Barbara, currently recovering from surgery, so Gaynor has stepped in to ensure your sweet tooth is catered for. This is in addition to the ready meals she makes.

Savoury goodies can be found on Mike the Artisan's stall. A mix of meats, smoked & deli products, and baked items – try his new range of tortolas – (or is it tortillas?) - with a hint of spice? I usually buy my breakfast from his stall. Further up the Hall is Farthingloe Farm, who produce some items especially for the Market, including meat pies, cream slices and bakery foods.

When you come to see us pop into the small hall and look at their beautiful items, or just have a chat. And of course there's Ruby's refreshment 'stall. Plenty of reasons for you to visit

ANNUAL PLAYING FIELD EVENT

For the last five years, Capel-le-Ferne Parish Council have been organising a Community Playing Field Event, which this year, despite the problems encountered with traffic issues, was a great day. It was certainly satisfying to see many people enjoying the wonderful equipment and facilities on offer, together with celebrating how fortunate the village is to have this open space for use by all. Councillors would now like to see other people/residents take the helm in the organisation of this event, or something similar (e.g. picnic, party and/or proms in the park), and would welcome the formation of a "Committee of Interested Parties". The Councillors will still be available to assist with providing details of catering vendors, stallholders and arena displays, but wish now to take a back seat on this. If you feel you would be able to join in and help, please contact the Parish Clerk (details above), then a member of the Parish Council will contact you. If no-one comes forward, it is likely this popular day in the village calendar will cease, which will be a shame. Look forward to hearing from you. Thank you.

"Village Commemoration" BEM Award for Mick Marshall

I first went to Africa about 9 years ago. On that visit I stayed in the guest house where our cook had malaria. I had never seen anyone with malaria before, he was so ill but had to keep working to feed his family. No sick pay in Uganda. When I came home I decided to raise money for mosquito nets. Now I am retired I make tote bags and sell them to raise money for nets. I have now been to Africa four times. On my last visit my friend and I worked at a centre for trafficked children, redecorating the bedrooms and the dining room. We stayed with the manager in his bungalow where we met Peter. Peter was trafficked as a 12 year old. Taken from his family in Malawi to work on a farm in Zambia. Thankfully someone recognised him as not "local" and reported the fact to the police. After contact between Police and Social Service and the Salvation Army, Peter was repatriated back to Malawi where he stayed in the Salvation Army's centre for trafficked children. Now aged 23 he has a dream. He wants to be a farmer. Lin and I spent time talking to Jimmy, the Centre manager, about Peter's dream; and we felt that we could help him realise that dream. Land in Malawi is cheap compared to England. £150 will buy an acre of land. For a viable small holding you would need 10 acres - £1,500 plus money to equip the farm and buy seeds etc. But a borehole to ensure that when the droughts come, as they inevitably do come in Malawi, the land could be irrigated would cost £3,250. More than the cost of the land!

Thanks to so many generous people we have purchased the land, and sent Peter on a couple of placements to learn how to farm. Now we are raising funds for the borehole. Once Peter had been told by Jimmy what we were planning to do, his immediate response was "now I know there is a God, and I promise that I will always employ other trafficked young men on the farm, to help them get started in life, just as I have been". Once we have raised the money for the borehole - we are getting there - we want to help a girls' school in Blantyre to get water on site for a toilet block. There are 1300 girls in the school and only 2 toilets. I have two toilets in my house!

I am so grateful to Mick for suggesting that money, which the village would have used to give him a party, should come to Project Peter. This just reinforces what a wonderful man he is and so deserving of his honour.

Many many thanks, Pam Barr, Capel-le-Ferne Baptist Church.

Hello everyone. Hope you are all well and have managed to get away for a few days while we have had plenty of sunshine. We have had some very hot days. August Meeting is always our Garden Meeting and this year we decided to have it in the afternoon instead of the evening. Jayne and Michael Stone threw their garden and home open to us and we thank them very much for their hospitality and allowing our members to enjoy a wonderful warm sunny afternoon, just chit chatting and catching up with fellow members and visitors. We had a theme this year and it was an 'Afternoon Strawberry Tea' (with Raspberries as well for those who did not like Strawberries) in aid of 'Breast Cancer and Macmillan Nurses'. So thank you ladies for all your support. There were gazebos to help you keep out of the sun and when it became cooler, Jayne wrapped everyone in our chairs with blankets and pashminas. A Fruit Punch and Sparkling Elderflower Cordial was the welcoming drink. Tea and coffee was served after everyone had eaten their fill. I know that everyone enjoyed the afternoon as they were not in a hurry to go home and also big thank to Mike, Jayne's husband for putting up with 24 noisy WI members and visitors.

This month's report is only a short one. We did not have a speaker this month as it always a very informal get together so that everyone could catch up on missed news and gossip.

September's Meeting is our Birthday Meeting and is on Tuesday, 13th September 2016. We are 57 years young. Mrs Janet Dean is our Speaker and her talk is on 'My Grandmother as a Spy'. Visitors are welcome so come along and enjoy an evening of jollification. Competition is 'As many items that you can get into a Standard Matchbox'. All items to be listed separately on a piece of paper.
