Fraud

Be aware of scams.

- Fake websites will often include text that suggests a sense of urgency.
- They are often poorly designed or only have one well-designed page.
- Pop-up windows are commonly used to gather your information.
- Don't trust information that does not come from official sources.
- If a website asks you to fill in your personal or financial information, think twice before doing so.
- Research before donating to charities.
- Use a browser that allows you to block pop-up windows.
- If someone calls stating to be from any authority or your bank, they will never ask for your pin number during the phone call.

Parish Council monthly update

Anti-social behaviour and other incidents of note:

Please adhere to the government guidelines that have been put in place to protect ourselves and our community.

Capel-le-Ferne & Hougham

There have been reports of nuisance youths in the area of the skatepark. Please report anti-social behaviour via 101.

22/07/2020 and 23/07/2020 there were various reports of a distressed male entering residents gardens of Capel-Le-Ferne. This male was a vulnerable missing person. Police attended and the male will now receive the correct help by relevant agencies. Thank you to all residents who raised their concerns and reported via the correct route of 999 and 101.

Temple Ewell & Lydden

Kent Police are working with your community to tackle anti-social behaviour and improve public safety. We have been working along side the MOD at Scotland common to tackle anti-social behaviour and nuisance vehicles.

This month PCSO's have been joining the MOD on the Scotland Common and have handed five Community Protection Warning's out to individuals.

"The riding of off-road motorcycles and other vehicles in the vicinity of the area known as "Scotland Common", Temple Ewell, which has caused damage to the land and a nuisance to local residents and legitimate users of land in this area."

Regarding noise complaints, please contact Dover District Council, enviromental health.

I can be contacted via my email Megan.Keehner@kent.police.uk however for non emergencies, please report this via 101 or make a report on the Kent Police website. For emergencies, call 999.
