

Update on Census Fraud

We have been alerted by Action Fraud that fraudsters have been using the Census as an opportunity to trick people into paying a penalty for missing information on their census forms.

Please remember that you will only ever be contacted about the Census via letter, and any approaches by email, text or phone are a scam.

If you believe you have fallen victim to this scam, then report it to Action Fraud at www.actionfraud.police.uk or calling 0300 123 2040 and forward any scam text messages to 7726.

From our colleagues at Kent Protect - Asda and Morrisons "out for delivery' text scam"

How the scam works -

One of the fake texts (shown below) claims 'your Asda order is out for delivery' while another pretending to be from Morrison's claims to offer details of your grocery order.

Your Morrisons order will be delivered soon. Details at:

The links will lead you to a webpage that apparently allows you to track your order and view a delivery note. However, any details you put in this webpage is used by fraudsters to target your bank account.

Investment Fraud

This week we have been supporting an Action Fraud campaign via our twitter platform about investment scam's, which target both young and old and with victims often targeted via social media platforms. So, follows us on Twitter @KentPoliceECU to find out more.

Below is some advice from the City of London Police on how to avoid becoming a victim of these scams –

- Be suspicious if you are contacted out the blue about an investment opportunity. This could be via a cold call, an e-mail or an approach on social media.
- Don't be rushed into making an investment. No legitimate organisation will pressure you into making a transaction or committing to something on the spot. Take time to do your research.
- Seek advice from trusted friends, family members or independent professional advice services before making a significant financial decision. Even genuine investment schemes can be high risk.
- Use a financial advisor accredited by the Financial Conduct Authority. Paying for professional advice may seem like an unnecessary expense, but it will help prevent you from being scammed.
- Always check the FCA Register to make sure you're dealing with an authorised firm and check the FCA Warning List of firms to avoid.
- Only use the telephone number and email address on the FCA Register, not the contact details the firm gives you and look out for subtle differences.
- Just because a company has a glossy website and glowing reviews from 'high net worth' investors does not mean it is genuine fraudsters will go to great lengths to convince you they are not a scam.
- Remember, if something sounds too good to be true, it probably is.

Over £63m was lost by victims of investment fraud who made reference to a social media platform in their report.
